

Step 3:

Use your new understanding of identity and one of the lenses below to examine how the protagonist in your chosen novel comes to better understand his/her own identity.

PART TWO:

Complete Step One- Step Four

Step One:

Choose ONE lens for interpreting identity formation to better frame your reading. (Self Select: You must choose either Lens #4 or Lens #5 for your annotations.)

Lens #1: Identity Is a (Complicated) Choice	Lens #2: Learning to Accept Who You Are
Lens #3: Caught in an Identity Crisis
Lens #4: Hiding Your True Identity (SELF SELECT OPTION)	Lens #5: The Fantastical Twist on Identity (SELF SELECT OPTION)

Write Your Lens Below:

Step Two & Step Three:

- Collect TEN pieces of textual evidence that address your character’s journey to better understanding himself/herself. Be sure to think about how the author is commenting on this journey by paying close attention to: characterization, secondary characters, tone, and author’s craft (e.g., imagery, personification, internal thinking, metaphors, similes, etc.).
- For each piece of textual evidence, provide a 5-7 sentence explanation that connects the text to either the online text provided or the lens of identity you have chosen.
- You will record your annotations in the chart below.

Annotation: Place any significant lines or passages that relate to your chosen lens. Make sure to note page numbers of these passages.	Analysis: For each piece of textual evidence, provide a 5-7 sentence explanation that connects the text to either the online text provided or the lens of identity you have chosen. Analysis must reflect deep thinking about your novel. You must show a high level of understanding, comprehension, and reasoning towards your annotation. The analysis you provide must be written in full sentences and must use proper PACTS.
